(Willcox / Darlow)

You are not my ennemy, you are a part of me
Whoever broke your dreams I'd like to meet
Who will kiss you right on the wrong side of the street

Let's heal ourselves through the night
Let's heal our dreams, bring them back to life
Let's heal our world and make it right
For everyone under the same moonlight

Let me mend you, I won't sell you hope
With a little time I will make it grow
I've watched you now and I need to know
Can you really make it on your own

Let's heal ourselves through the night
Let's heal our dreams, bring them back to life
Let's heal our world and make it right
For everyone under the same moonlight

That spark of life inside your soul
It's yours for all eternity
You are priceless beyond the stars

This world is yours
Didn't anyone ever tell you so

Let's heal ourselves
Let's heal our dreams
Let's heal our world and make it right
For everyone under the same moonlight

Let's heal ourselves through the night
Let's heal our dreams, bring them back to life
Let's heal our world and make it right
For everyone under the same moonlight

Through the night
Let's heal our dreams, bring them back to life...
