Oh, you got a button that'll make you cry
Your hands are warm but your heart's as cold as ice
And I wanna love you, but you just wanna lie
Oh, you got a button that'll make you cry

Sunday morning, I'm all dressed up
My velvet shoes on and my coffee cup
We walk along through the snow and the muck
As your mind starts to wander about the way it was

Oh, you got a button that'll make you cry
Your hands are warm but your heart's as cold as ice
And I wanna love you, but you just wanna lie
Oh, you got a button that'll make you cry

Records playing our favorite tune
I lean over toward you as you howl at the moon
Tell me darlin', am I speaking too soon
Why do you always cry instead of telling the truth

Hoo, hoo, tell me the truth
Hoo, hoo, tell me the truth
Hoo, hoo, tell me the truth
Crocodile tears is all I'm getting from you

Hoo, hoo, tell me the truth
Crocodile tears is all I'm getting from you
Crocodile tears is all I'm getting from you

Oh, you got a button that'll make you cry
Your hands are warm but your heart's as cold as ice
And I wanna love you, but you just wanna lie
Oh, you got a button that'll make you cry
[x2]

You got a button that'll make you cry
You got a button that'll make you cry
