I wish that I could breathe
A moment just to be here
A chance to take it in
Before I have to leave

So this is how it feels
To walk into a daydream
Can't tell you how my heart sings
To see it all for real

When you do what you love
It feels amazing
If you do what you love
You can do anything you want

I always said when I get there
I'll change the world, I'll take more care
I'll touch the sky, be more prepared
When I get there

The road rolls on and on
It twists a while and then returns
Where here turns into there's long gone
Before we notice

When you do what you love
It feels amazing
If you do what you love
You can do anything at all

I always said when I get there
I'll change the world, I'll take more care
I'll touch the sky, be more prepared

I packed my bags, I left my room
There's nothing more that I can think to do
Now I need to breathe
I just need to breathe

I always said when I get there
I'll change the world, I'll take more care
I'll touch the sky

I always said when I get there
I'll change the world, I'll take more care
I'll touch the sky, be more prepared
When I get there
