Burning bridges, building walls
Erasing memories
I leave no trail for you to follow your eyes, a snake's eyes.
Charm and deceive
Blue-eyes, true eyes. Keep me awake

Kneel in shame. I despise all that you are
Bow your head and make amends
We all will cast you out once and for all
Bow your head and make amends

For the sake of shame. For the sake of dignity show me yourself. Something honest and real!
Don't speak, don't move, don't breathe, submit Step down. A slip of the tongue will be your demise your eyes, a snake's eyes. Charm and deceive
Blue-eyes, true eyes. Keep me awake

Kneel in shame. I despise all that you are
Bow your head and make amends
We all will cast you out once and for all
Bow your head and make amends

Bow your head and make amends
Bow your head and make amends
