A union of fools, sharing ideals
A moronic mayhem of look-alike fools
mindlessly roaming, they're holding onto a place where they think they belong

Keep them contained. Keep them away

Just open your eyes, and I'll point out a few Just open your eyes! It's a freakshow revealed Just open your eyes, and witness it all
A faceless freakshow revealed!

They wear the same colours

They act like they're one Why all the effort?
They've got it all wrong!
Mindlessly roaming,
defiling and wasting our space like the vermin they are

Keep them contained. Keep them away

All that effort and the time they take will all go to waste
It's a fucking disgrace!
In hopes of acceptance they rape their identities They'd be better off alone!
