I step off the train, Iâ€™m walking down your street again, and past your door, but You donâ€™t live there any more. Itâ€™s years since youâ€™ ve been there. Now youâ€™ve Disappeared somewhere like outer space, youâ€™ve found some better place, and I miss you - like the deserts miss the rain. Could you be dead? You always were Two steps ahead of everyone. Weâ€™d walk behind while you would run. I look up At your house, and can almost hear you shout down to me where I always used To be, and I miss you - like the deserts miss the rain.
Back on the train, I ask why Did I come again? Can I confess Iâ€™ve been hanging round your old address? and The years have proved to offer nothing since you moved. Youâ€™re long Gone but I canâ€™t move on, and I miss you - like the deserts miss the rain.
