I'm falling in and out of love with a regularity that's getting hard to hide Gotta face the facts and learn to act upon my heart and less upon my mind
But my lack of application breeds uncertainty I'm falling in and out of love and it's getting hard to hide
It's not my lack of concentration I lost the knack of hang on in there
I seem to make a sharpish exit at the slightest provocation Falling in and out of love with a regularity that's getting hard to hide
Gotta face the facts and learn to act upon my heart and
less upon my mind
I'm falling in and out of love and it's getting hard to
It's not my lack of concentration I lost the knack of hang
on in there
You say I'm acting too familiar and faults of certain understatement

My lack of application breeds uncertainty I'm falling in and out of love and it's getting hard to
I'm falling in and out of love with an insecurity that is getting out of hand But with each mistake there is something falling into place, exactly as I planned Then my wild imagination runs away with me
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love and it's getting hard to
In and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling...
