Every day I walk some lonely street searchin' for you
'til you come back to me
People around stop and stare as if they know the hurt I bear
And suddenly I realize I'm crying, crying, crying
'cause I'm in a helpless situation (Come back babe)
And I need some consolation (Come back babe)
'Cause my mind is in a confusion and my heart feels
such abusion since you've been gone
Keeps me cryin', cryin', cryin'
In my shelter of your love, my strength I found
But now I'm useless, baby, since you're not around
I'm in a helpless situation (Come back babe)
And I need some consolation (Come back babe)
'Cause my mind is in a confusion and my heart feels
such abusion since you've been gone
Keeps me cryin', cryin', cryin'

Every day I walk some lonely street searchin' for you
'til you come back to me
People around stop and stare as if they know the hurt I
bear
And suddenly I realize I'm crying, crying, crying
'cause I'm in a helpless situation (Come back babe)
And I need some consolation (Come back babe)
'Cause my mind is in a confusion and my heart feels
such abusion since you've been gone
Keeps me cryin', cryin', cryin'
I'm helpless (Helpless), since I lost your love (Come back babe)
Helpless (Helpless), 'cause now I need your love
(Come back babe)
I never needed no-one before but now I need you more and more, since you've been gone
