Only you can help yourself so try not to mislead him
You've done many foolish things but deep inside you need him

You've got to believe me, just open your mind
My tangled emotions, I need to unwind
'Cuz baby, though you know I'd never leave you
I never wanted to deceive you, although I do
But I don't want our lovin' to die and I'm so tired of living a lie
Though I know I've been weak, I can try, yes I'll try

You've got to believe me, I mean what I say I try not to wonder when you go away
But baby, don't ever make advances Seems there are no other chances to go astray
But I don't want our lovin' to die and I'm so tired of
living a lie
Though I know I've been weak, I can try, yes I'll try

Only you can help yourself so try not to mislead him
You've done many foolish things but deep inside you
need him

'Cuz baby, though you know I'd never leave you
I never wanted to deceive you, although I do
But I don't want our lovin' to die and I'm so tired of
living a lie
Though I know I've been weak I can try, yes I'll try

But I don't want our lovin' to die and I'm so tired of
living a lie
Though I know I've been weak I can try, yes I'll try
But I don't want our lovin' to die and I'm so tired of
living a lie
Though I know I've been weak I can try, yes I'll try
But I don't want our lovin' to die
