Shattered, our love is shattered
All torn and tattered
I guess I never learn
Ashes, my dreams are ashes
Tears fall in splashes
I guess I never mattered
Here I stand in the ruins
My life before me
I don't know what I'm doing
Can't you do something for me?
Shattered, our love is shattered
All torn and tattered
I guess I never mattered
Here I stand in the ruins
My life before me
I don't know what I'm doing
Can't you do something for me?
Shattered, our love is shattered
All torn and tattered
I guess I never mattered or you wouldn't have left me shattered
Shattered, shattered, shattered, shattered
