"Dandelion" by Tracy Bonham

All my life I thought I was the one to save the world,
It would come easy.
Now I'm old enough to sit around and piss and moan instead.

Save a tree and I will gladly admire it's beauty,
10 to 12 inches.
Don't expect that I will get out of my chair to see it grow.

And I was a blooming flower
Blossoming from the seed.
And I was a blooming flower.
Turn my back and turn to...
Weed.

Those are people with them votes and all them hippie thoughts.
They do it better.
If I got involved I'd only get in everybody's way.

Shine my shoe and I won't say a thing behind your back.
Yeah, we're all brothers.
Don't expect that I will share my plate when your ribs start to show.

And I was a blooming flower
Blossoming from the seed.
And I was a blooming flower.
Turn my back and turn to...

Dandelion, Dandelion
Souls of you and me.
How can you smell so bad but look so pretty?

And I was a blooming flower
Blossoming from the seed.
And I was a blooming flower.

Turn my back and--
I was a blooming flower
Blossoming from the seed.
And I was a blooming flower.
Turn my back and turn to--
Turn my back and turn to--
Turn my back and turn to...
Weed.
