I have a song to sing, a song of love, a song of joy to bring My songs of living my dreams that have all come true
because of you
You know I sang for years, songs of pain through bitter tears
I was afraid and felt so alone because I had no one to call my own

Now, I've found a love in you, one that's pure and true You're that someone I've been waiting for And you, you know it from the start we'd always be a part of each other Now, I pray we'll stay together

I have a song, a song of love, a song of joy, a song for you and me
You are the song I sing, I'd like to thank you, baby
I have a song to sing, coming from the heart of a brand new star
My songs of living my dreams, I'm not afraid anymore You're what I'm living for Now, I've found a friend in you, one that's pure and true You're the one I've been waiting for And you, you knew it from the start I'll be coming from my the heart

Now, I pray that we always stay together

A song of love, a song of joy, a song for you and me
You are the song I sing, yeah yeah

I have a song to sing, coming from the heart of a brand
new star
because of you
I have a song to sing, a song of love, a song of you and me
You are the song I sing, oh, baby, I have a song
