(Tony Marty/Philip Douglas/Jennifer Sherrill)

You look like an angel
I wanna touch you
Come a little closer
There's not much that we can do
Oh unless you
Come a little closer

If you can't see the love in my eyes
If you can't hear my heart beating fast
Then maybe, you should come a little closer
If you can't feel the electricity
Flying between you and me
Then maybe, you should come a little closer

One foot in front of the other
Come a little closer

Right now
One inch between us
Is one too many
Come a little closer
Don't resist it
Too much distance
Are you listening
Come a little closer

If you can't see the love in my eyes
If you can't hear my heart beating fast
Then maybe, you should come a little closer
If you can't feel the electricity
Flying between you and me
Then maybe, you should come a little closer

One foot in front of the other
Come a little closer
Let your heart lead you, I need you
Right here, right now, don't slow down
Keep coming, that's it, come on

Come a little closer
Come a little closer
Come a little closer
