She's history, don't ruin good beer with tears
Get up off those knees
She ain't coming back, Jack
And if you think she will you're on the wrong track

And our hearts get broken every day
And life goes on without her here
It would be so clear
If only it was

Anybody else's heart but mine
And I'd say "Hey that's the breaks and it'll mend in time"
Now, I'd know just what to do if it was anybody else's
blues
If it was anybody else's heart but mine

Now, hey, what's goin' on?
It's a little bit different when it's my love that's gone
Now old platitudes
Like find somebody else now they just won't do

And I was so wise when giving free advice
To everybody else
But now hearing it myself
I wish that it was

Anybody else's heart but mine
And I'd say "Hey that's the breaks and it'll mend in
time"
Now, I'd know just what to do if it was anybody else's
blues
It was anybody else's heart but mine

Anybody else's heart but mine
Well, I'd say "Hey, that's the breaks and it'll mend in time"
Now, I'd know just what to do if it was anybody else's
blues
It was anybody else's heart but mine
