Here's a thing about your memory, it could be a thousand miles
It could be as many days but when it's sweepin' over me
I'm so powerless, it just carries me away

And where it's takin' me, I never know, the only thing That I can do is hope, it's somewhere I wanna go

Not that January night under that street light with the snow
Fallin' all around and I'm tellin' you things that I don't really mean
But they just keep comin' out and I see your unbelievin' tears
Your speechless breath hangin' in the air

And I watch you throw your ring out in the snow and there
I wait until your memory goes, somewhere I wanna go

Like that weekend when we just took off, drivin' in that April sun
Anywhere the feelin' went, we ended up in Montreal
We couldn't understand a word but we learned to laugh in French

And where you memory wants to take me, I don't know The only thing that I can do is hope, it's somewhere I wanna go

Not that January night under that street light with the
snow
Fallin' all around and I'm tellin' you things that I don't really mean
But they just keep comin' out and I see your unbelievin'
Your speechless breath hangin' in the air

And I watch you throw your ring out in the snow and
there
I wait until your memory goes, somewhere I wanna go

Make it somewhere I wanna go, somewhere I wanna go

And dancin' down at Mardi Gras, somewhere I wanna go

Little motel room in Arkansas, somewhere I wanna go

The nights we just sat up and talked, somewhere I

Somewhere I wanna go, make it somewhere I wanna go

Somewhere I wanna go
