

Tracy Byrd "Walkin' The Line"

Visit "Walkin' The Line" on MotoLyrics.com

Girl I swear you dang near, took my breath
The way you sashayed in this bar all by yourself
You say, you've heard about me
And all my ramblin' ways
If I could have a gal like you
I'd change today

Yeah, I've been called an old tomcat
Been in and out of this and that
I hugged 'em, I kissed 'em
I loved 'em and I left 'em behind
But I'd do right by you, if you was mine
I'd spend all my time walkin' the line

Ain't no doubt that you've done stoled my heart
I can almost see us walkin' arm in arm
This old country boy never dreamed
He'd live to see the day
He'd be willin' to throw
His little black book away

Yeah, I've been called an old tomcat
Been in and out of this and that
I hugged 'em, I kissed 'em
I loved 'em and I left 'em behind
Lord, but I'd do right by you, if you was mine
I'd spend all my time, walkin' the line, oh yeah

Yeah, I've been called an old tomcat
Been in and out of this and that
I hugged 'em, I kissed 'em
I loved 'em and I left 'em behind my my
Oh, but I'd do right by you, if you was mine
I'd spend all my time walkin' the line, yes I would
I'd spend all my time, walkin' the line

Visit Tracy Byrd page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.