Funny when you stop and think times goes faster then you blink nothings ever like it was but girl we've got a special thing all the happiness it brings is more than enough

I know its hard to believe your still the biggest part of me all I'm living for
I still think about you
I still dream about you
I still want you
and need you by my side I'm still mad about you all I ever wanted was you your still the one [2x]

It's hard to breathe when were apart your like sunshine in my heart I keep you here inside you've been everything to me you've been and always will be the apple of my eye

And I know its hard to believe your still the biggest part of me
all I'm living for
I still think about you
I still dream about you
I still want you
I still mad about you
all i ever wanted was you

If you love me look into my eyes and say you do I've been waiting all my life for someone just like you baby all that we've been through girl im still in love with you and I want you to know I do, I do

I still think about you
I still dream about you
I still want you
