I always pride myself on being strong
You've never seen me cry and carry on
But after seein' you with your new love
Suddenly I'm all choked up
Any minute now you're gonna see
Years of tears rollin' down my cheeks
A flash flood of old memories
Will come pourin' out
Any minute now
It won't be long
It's been comin' since you've been gone
I'm holdin' back but I can't hold on
I'm gonna cry out loud
Any minute now
I said I'd always live by my own rules

I swore I'd never be nobody's fool
Thought I knew how to hide the pain
But that's all about to change
Any minute now you're gonna see
Years of tears rollin' down my cheeks
A flash flood of old memories
Will come pourin' out
Any minute now
It won't be long
It's been comin' since you've been gone
I'm holdin' back but I can't hold on
I'm gonna cry out loud
Any minute now
Any minute now
