He said son won't you lend an ear to what I have to say I've been down this road before and I think I know the way
He said I can't help but see that's quite the load you bear
You better lose that attitude if you wanna get somewhere
You look at me as if you see a worthless man
Well don't be fooled son by the dirt on these hands
He said never judge a man by the clothes that he wears Don't take for granted that he chose the cross he bears
You can't put him down for who he is or what he does Cause you don't dig the holes that he dug [ guitar ]
He said son this road of life's been known to take it's toll
I've hit all the rough spots every ditch and every hole There's just so many paths but wrong or right's a choice
Don't let what you think you know throw you off course
He said slow down son and take it all in stride
Take your time along with this advice
He said never judge a man...
He said never judge a man...
[ guitar ]
You can't put him down for who he is or what he does Cause you don't dig the holes he dug
