"Stars In The Morning Sky"

i can reach
and touch the midnight
i can feel
the stars up in the sky
and i can see
the break of morning
reaching out
to take the night from me...
(chorus)
one more night
one more dream slipping away again please make me new again so i can be with you
and hold me close
i want to be in loving arms again lose myself in you again like stars in the morning sky starlight dance
within your deep eyes
light from heaven
burns clear and bright within
and i am lost
within their blue depths help me see
why they are damp again...
(repeat chorus)
we are free
though bound together
we are lost
only to find again
oh, we are in
that secret place where
stars are lost
before the rise of dawn...
(chorus until fade)
