Standing face to face
But a million miles apart
And on any other day
That love would hold me to your heart

How did we get so lost?
How did love slip away?
When this line we have crossed
Is taking me a different way?

When I see you now
I pray the stars will change
To take away the doubt and ease the pain
Of losing what we've made
This is falling out of love

All the closets that we hide
Keep us safe from the unknown
But what our trust would open wide
Can never be closed

And I'll find you in the afternoons
When all that's said is gone

When I see you now
I pray the stars will change
To take away the doubt and ease the pain
Of losing what we've made
This is falling out of love

And I'm falling
And I'm falling

When I see you now
I pray the stars will change
To take away the doubt and ease the pain
Of losing what we've made
This is falling out of love
