Tell her she is all that's beautiful
Tell her everything's my fault
Tell her this is not what I had planned
Tell I am moving on

Tell her love will come around, someday

Please tell her not to cry
I never meant for love
To leave her cold tonight

Please tell her that I tried
To spare her all my lies
Tell her something

Tell her I am lost in misery
Tell her I have lost my mind
Tell her love was such a mystery, Yeah (yeah-yeah)
Tell her tunnels end in light

Tell her love will come around, someday

Please tell her not to cry
I never meant for love
To leave her cold tonight

Please tell her that I tried
To spare her all my lies
Tell her something

I cannot say all that my heart
Longs to tell her
That nothing can change
That all of these words are not enough

Tell her she is all that's beautiful
Tell her everything's my fault

Please tell her not to cry
I never meant for love
To leave her cold tonight

Please tell her that I tried
To spare her all my lies
Tell her something
