You have put a lock
To our love
It's gonna be rough
To change its luck

I want to know
If I did it wrong
I don't wanna be low
All lifelong

It's inevitable
It's dreadful
It's blameful
It's possible

Don't make me do this
Don't do it please

We need to talk
About our love
I'm not a dove
I can't change your lock

I couldn't stand
Not holding your hand
You won't understand
What I've planned

It's so dreadful
It's so blameful
It's so awful
It's so tasteful
It's so painful
It's so truthful
It's so doleful
It's so fateful

Don't make me do this
Don't make me do this to you
