Home On the Range

Traditional American Folk Song

O give me a home where the buffalo roam
Where the deer and the antelope play
Where seldom is heard a discouraging word
And the skies are not cloudy all day

CHORUS:

Home, home on the range
Where the deer and the antelope play
Where seldom is heard a discouraging word
And the skies are not cloudy all day

BR sung often

BR

BRWhere the air is so pure and the zephyrs so free
BRAnd the breezes so balmy and light
BRThat I would not exchange my home on the range
BRFor all of the cities so bright

BR

BRHow often at night when the heavens are bright
BRWith the light of the glittering stars
BRI stand there amazed & I ask as I gaze
BRDoes their glory exceed that of ours?

BR*There were a number of disputes and lawsuits over authorship of this song in the BR19th century. The probable authors are Brewster
Higley and Dan Kelly*
