I can't help but think about
How you came and turned my life around
And all the times I can't count
That your love has rescued me
You heard my every prayer
And brought me out of my despair
You dried every tear and set my soul free and now I

Praise you
All my past mistakes have been
Erased you
Have given my new life and I'm
Amazed you
You came and made my life so complete
Now I'll praise you with everything in me

All the things you've let me see
And the places you are taking me
You rewrote my destiny
O Lord you made me new
You deserve nothing less
Than all of my existence
So take everything I possess
And use it to bring glory to you and I'll

Chorus

For sunshine and the rain
For laughter and the pain
For using everything
To bring me closer to you
Repeat 4X

Chorus 2x
