Got this good feeling in me
Now that everything's feeling clear inside
Look around, that glow is real
Silence felt so good, inside it lay so calm

Wind that blew some cold
Now it feels a world away
Not to try and just to be Someone truly special like you always were

And when your time comes to work things out
Your time will come to work things out
When it flows

A passion came to me, warmth around
Just like you found someone
Along side it walked with me
Showed me to be grateful, for the way I am

Came from deep inside
Thoughts so real, just as the ground you're on Why do you want to try to be?
Look to yourself, I think you'll find someone

And when your time comes to work things out
Your time'll come to work thing out
When it flows, repulsive

Feeling horny and just that
You don't want my love, I'll take it back
Learned a lesson, on my knees
I don't want your dreaded sympathy

All I want, all I need is some mercy for me please Give it up now

Visions of me that make your face a frown
You want to change my crooked world around
What I got, what is in my past
You're not able to see in just one glance

Come down, come on, come on, come on

She don't want nobody 'round
She don't want nobody coming home

And all I ask of you is what I'd give for free
I ask the Lord for mercy, I'm begging on my knees
If we're to live together, for what we hope and pray
Then we must give each other a little love to find our way
