"Tell Them I Said Hi"

If nobody sees you nobody stares at you
What can I do if you wanna go outside to the city lights?
So I'll go with you, I promise I'll be good
This time I won't make a fool out of myself or anyone else

So don't worry baby it's gonna be a beautiful night
And it'll be fine as long as I buy Sprite

How can I be sure of what they'll say to you?
I don't even know if you're up for it too
Do as you will, I can't lock you inside for the rest of your life
I won't be showing up tonight so tell them I said "Hi"

You don't wanna show them that you're off the market
unless they take it
As some kind of a challenge
Will you just gimme a reason why would I keep going on like this when
You made me feel so useless?
Why won't I just let you go?

How can I be sure of what they'll say to you?
I don't even know If you're up for it too
Do as you will, I can't lock you inside for the rest of your life
I won't be showing up tonight so tell them I said "Hi"

How can I be sure of what they'll say to you?
I don't even know
If you're up for it too
Do as you will, I can't lock you inside for the rest of your life
I won't be showing up tonight so tell them I said "Hi"
