[chorus]

She's alright already, she's back on her feet
It didn't take her long to get over me
My heart's still hurtin' but what's killin me
She's alright already and I'm just a memory

There I stood with flowers in hand
Hopin' to dry her tears
She walked out that door with him,
Grinning from ear to ear

[chorus]

[guitar/fiddle solo]

She said there would never be anyone else
No one could fill my shoes
Now she's using that same old line
Snuggled up to someone new

[chorus]

She's alright already and I'm just a memory
