Wind me up today, maybe I'll find the words to say

Or maybe they're all gone

But if I found a way, maybe time would be a friend to me

Or maybe I'm all wrong

Falling down, on the way to nowhere

Did you forget the one who made you real

I believe in the pain you caused, in the faith you lost in
me

I believe in the tears you caused, in the hope you lost in me

Bring me down today, I'll be around tomorrow anyway

Even when you're gone

So take this with you, it doesn't matter what you do

Without you I'll move on
