Here it comes out from hiding, ignorance progress in the air

By now you should take something
For now there's nothing out there
Drinking your poison of the mouth
I am what brings you back around
I'll never swallow
So tasteless, takes your mind out

Now here it comes
Now here it burns
Now here it comes
Now here it comes

The Altar's broken in your house, I'll never hear you
pray again
Nothing to follow
So tasteless when you find out

Here it comes
Now here it burns
Yeah here it comes
Now here we learn

In-between the lines, she slowly unwinds
Breathe on my good friend
Now I am Contagious
Passed by in the cold
You're breathing too slow
Passed out by the day
Now I am Contagious

When you came crashing through yourself
You looked more helpless every time
The words came crashing through your mouth
So tasteless, listen to your lies
The Altar's broken in your house, I'll never hear you
pray again
Nothing to follow
So tasteless when you're

In-between the lines, she slowly unwinds
Breathe on my good friend
Now I am Contagious
Passed by in the cold
You're breathing too slow
Passed out by the day
Now I am Contagious

Once again you're taken in
Once again you're taken in
Once again you're taken in
Once again you're taken IN!

Now HERE WE LEARN!

In-between the lines, she slowly unwinds
Now I am Contagious
Now I am Contagious

I'm contagious
