Sickness in silence, soon you will fall to me, forget me
Deeper than you wanted, sinking like you were before I adore

Tranquilised Satisfied, are you still listening
I will still follow you, follow you
No matter what I do you still burn away
I will still follow you, follow you
You need to realise.

Screaming you can't help this.
She breaks, cuts beneath the skin falls within.
Are you breaking in, taking in, are you still listening

I will still follow you, follow you
No matter what I do you still burn away
I will still follow you, follow you
You need to realise I wont go away
I will still follow you, follow you
No matter what I do you still burn away
I will still follow you, follow you
I will follow you, follow you
Follow you, follow you

Yeah!

You'll never understand why you ran away from me
It's time to re-arrange, yeah
You stop and wait, the sun goes into hiding now
It's time to rearrange

I breathe on

You know I will Follow you, follow you
No matter what I do, burn away
I will follow you, follow you
Now I have found a way to escape (I breathe on) Follow you, follow you (I breathe on)
I will follow you, follow you, follow you, follow you

Sickness in silence, sickness in silence
sickness in silence, sickness in silence
