"Nothing left"

Visit "Nothing left" on MotoLyrics.com

I had nothing, but you bought it
I knew someday you were bound to change
You can't stop me, this is my time
The more I try, still don't know your name

Inside I'm breaking, don't owe you nothing

I don't care for what you're thinking
There's nothing left to hate
I don't care I'm always breaking
You're my best mistake

I wanted to become you
If you don't mind if I take your place
Now think of me, like I loved you
But I can't stand to see me fake like this

Inside I'm breaking, don't owe you nothing

I don't care for what you're thinking
I don't care I'm always breaking
You're my best mistake

I don't care
ABOUT YOU

Yeah! There's nothing left, there nothing left to hate!
I don't care for what you're thinking
I don't care I'm always breaking
You're my best mistake
I don't care
You're my best mistake
I don't care
You're my best mistake
