Is it a day for anger?
Is it a day for peace?
Am I the only one alive with this disease?
When you're a celebration
That maybe we've done too long
When all your buses, trains, and taxi cabs have gone
Is it a day for angels?
Is it a day for gods?
Or is it a day to fight for love against the odds?
CHORUS:
When I'm lying
When I'm standing
When I'm standing on my own
When I'm right enough to tell you that I was wrong
I was wrong
Is it a day for answers?
Is it a day for truth?
Is there a way to say I'll stay and give you proof?
Is it a day for angels?
Is it a day for gods?
Is it a day to fight for love?
CHORUS X2
I was wrong....
