[Melody]

I wanna take chances with a made man
Done been around with all them snakes, man
Love it when he keeps it poppin'
Keeps his game locked
Like this was breakdance
One day plan for a date be grand
Maybe fly out to get some nice tan
Something like Maldives on a island
That's step one to be the right man (Hustler)

[Rap Verse 1: Verbal {Melody in background}]

First, I was lost in ya
Eyes
Everything you did was seismic
You hypnotized me (Hypnotized me) {Can't, stop}
I made my size fit
Around what you did, no matter what the cost is {Caught up}
Then we was lost
In a translation
It ain't cause we from Tokyo
Times like this, in Japanese, you say
"Doushiyou"
Yo, yo, yo

[Main Verse: Melody]

He's a phantom
He comes and goes, as he pleases
I'm captive
He stole my heart and never gave me his
Can't trust him
He just won't let me into his life
Something 'bout the way he talks and
Don't know he keeps me hangin'

Hook 1: Melody

Tick, tock
Time is tickin'
I wanna be heard, but he just won't listen
Just, can't

Just can't visit
Only when you want hugs and kisses
Guess, I'm
One of those women
Who knows it's wrong, but just too chicken
I can't deny that you're
The man that gets me high

Chorus: Melody
Hustler
I don't want that
But I love, how
You make me feel
Can't stop
Here we go again
Going 'round and 'round in circles
Caught up
Want to walk out
Want to fall back
But I'm so trapped
Guess I'm just another one of those whose
Stuck in your love

[Rap Verse: Verbal]
You said you had enough, and now we can't be one
That I was trapped in ya
Uh
What's happenin'
Let me
Rerun through my hard drives, memories, archives
Did you have hard times? Did I make you cry?
Did I said smart lies? All I meant to do was
Try and make you look fly
Girl
Why
Would you go tellin' your friends
That I was actin' up, I ain't a actor, hun
I had to act what I
Felt in my heart
Be realer than Roxanne, that's real talk
Let's leave all
Of this behind us
Forget it like high school calculus
I'm into you, and you into me
And I know intuitively you feeling me
So please
Talk is cheap
So like Ben Stiller in Starsky and Hutch
Just do it

Hook 2: Melody

I'm, not
I'm not jealous
I know you grind and busy with the fellas
But, you
Know I like it
If you let me hear your voice for a second
Step, up
What you're feelin'
Do you want us or keep on gaming
But I can't deny that you're the Man that gets me high

Repeat Chorus Twice

[Melody]
Step one
Uh, uh
Step two
Uh, uh
Step three
That's how it gots to be
Stuck in your
Stuck in your love
Step one
Uh, uh
Step two
Uh, uh
Step three
That's how it gots to be
Stuck in your love
