Come now listen babe

I gotta reason why I behave

Like a child with a light in his eyes

Runnin' naked on a cold winter night

I'm like a pigeon thats spreading its wings to fly away to better things

Like a hammer that has made a dent in every single cent youve spent

Said oh god you got to help me a little bit youve got to have a relief file for me

Now I know I'm always right, that's a thought that never even crossed my mind

Don't touch me there I've got to be pure

So smack that hand and read this verse

So I wrecked your life what the heck

My new found faith will pay by check

This lifes took a toll on my soul-

So this is me and thats my song

And I guess you can see we don't get along

Ive shut the doors on what we had

So now she can sleep with her dear ole dad

My eyes are dry and our hands are clean

And I cant believe all the things I've seen

-chorus-

Oh my god
