Grab my knee and look at me and try to tell me
I'll be home soon
Asleep in my bed and unstoned
I'm tired of me this way
I don't know what I've gotten into
But I'm glad that it's now instead of sooner
This desert heat has crowded me strong
With a wish that I had for winter
It's not as gentle as it sounds
As though is sounded yesterday
When I heard a leaf of my life hit the ground
As a bottle cap flew from my fingers
I don't know what I've gotten into
But I'm glad that it's now instead of sooner
This desert heat has crowded me strong
With a wish that I had for winter
...and the sand blew in my eyes
As I stood on the edge and looked down to see
The light of a new life shining up on me
I don't know what I've gotten into

But I'm glad that it's now instead of sooner

This desert heat has crowded me strong

With a wish that I had for winter

...and the sand blew in my eyes
