I'm writing you to let you see
A Part of what I'm feeling
Please don't bother writing back
I won't be here
I'm leaving home with no intentions because I'm not had for feeling used
And I think I deserve better then that

Then you found out
Found out that I wasn't around
And you see me
See me as just a bigger challenge now

(Chorus): Please don't call me on the phone
And don't bother stopping by before I go
Because you have shown me what you're like
You don't play fair
And you're not very nice
We'd both be better off
Don't call me

With all the things that have been said
About a life with no regrets
You never seemed to care 'till I was gone
This time away has let me see
What you really ment to me
And I guess we are better off apart

Then you found out
Found out that I wasn't around
And you see me
See me as just a bigger challenge now

(Chorus)

Don't think I'm thinking now to want me more
I miss the fun we had but the way they were before
But now it's better if we don't talk anymore

Then you found out
Found out that I wasn't around

And you see me
See me as just a bigger challenge now

(Chorus)
