

Men The "Church Of Logic Sin And Love"

Visit "Church Of Logic Sin And Love" on MotoLyrics.com

For the lyrics archive that everybody uses:

Song: Chuch of Logic, Sin, & Love

Album: The Men

Band: The Men

Typed by: Miguel de Icaza (miguel@roxanne.nuclecu.unam.mx)

They weren't surprised by the wind and rain

They took off anyway -- east, I think that's what they did

They were just two of the wildest, bored creatures on earth

Fed up with work, strip bars and loneliness galore

In an old oldsmobile that one of them bought off their father

They ate up so much road -- they was grinnin'

(Then they came upon the thing)

chorus

This is real -- this is now

This is the freak show baby anyhow

On the church of logic, sin and love

Heals the curious magic soul

Big top drama from head to toe

Cactus, venom, rodeo

On the church of logic, sin and love

Two hours later they decided to stop at a diner

Because they loved the smell of eggs and coffee

I just had to smoke a cigarette and wear a hat

By the time that they set off again, the sun was starting to set

It made the sky look red like a nuclear ray

One of them said "what do you want more than anything

in this whole wide world

Do you want mokey, do you want sex, or do you want all that succes?"

I thought about that myself

(Then they came upon the thing)

chorus

The thing ahead sixty miles, do no miss

Not for the squeamish or depressed, not for the unbelievers

Truly obsessed -- something you just don't wanna miss

It's the kind of place where space explorers could have landed

Around 1963 -- when John F. Kennedy was in Life Magazine

And everything was aqua marine, aque marine chorus out

Visit Men The page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.