Got my back against the wall now
Problems that I didn't see
We got caught up in tangle
Then you tried to swing on me

How could I justified
Mistreating the love of my life
I ain't too proud to beg for better, baby
That's what I deserve

Tried to be good to you
Even stood there by you
And you ran out on me anyway
I must have been a fool

'Cause all is fair in love and war
So when your fighting someone you love, you better be careful
There no feelings, there's low blows, just in case you
didn't know
'Cause in the morning it will be alright, alright, alright

Here comes him again
Streaking in my back door
Bruised heart torn from trampling
From years of my past

I'm painless and I'm angry
No time to catch feeling
I've been done wrong so I'm stone cold
And down to get even

Loves a gamble
And I ain't winning
Torn up from my past
Love don't live here no more

All is fair in love and war
So when your fighting someone you love, you better be careful
There no feelings, there's low blows, just in case you
didn't know

'Cause in the morning it will be alright, alright, alright

All is fair in love and war

So when your fighting someone you love, you better be careful

There no feelings, there?s low blows, just in case you didn?t know

'Cause in the morning it will be alright, alright, alright

All is fair in love and war

All is fair in love and war

So why you wanna hate me?

(All is fair in love and war)

I tried to hurt you 'cause you tried to play me out

So why you so cruel to me?

(All is fair in love and war)

You took my heart and you tried to play me soft?

You took my heart and stoned it

(All is fair in love and war)

I didn?t want you take and tried to lead you on

All I was, was good to you

(All is fair in love and war)

I didn?t want you take and tried to lead you on

So why you wanna hurt me?

(All is fair in love and war)

I tried to hurt you 'cause you tried to play me out

Why you run around on me?

(All is fair in love and war)

You took my heart and you tried to play it soft

How long can this last?

(All is fair in love and war)

I didn?t want you take and tried to lead you on

You took the best of me

(All is fair in love and war)

I took the best of you

Ain?t too many more days, I?m gonna be treated this way

(In love and war)

And it ain't too many more lies, I?m gonna listen to my baby

(In love and war)

If you listen to me, things will go a little bit better

(In love and war)

Why would I listen to you?

Willing to give you a chance yes I am

(In love and war)

[Incomprehensible]
