Who does she think she is, coming by here raising all eye brows and our curiosity yeah slightly known to most, but not too many I hear they call her good and plenty

I'm here to let her know, she's just a woman and tell her that I'm just a man, yeah yeah if she emotional, I won't give her any cause she don't know that I'm a superman yeah who do you think you are, coming by here got me all nervous and stressed all out inside, yeah I don't really understand, where she came from or what she needs from me

I'm here to let her know, that she's just a woman yeah yeah
And tell her that I'm just a man, yeah if she gets emotional, I won't give her any yeah until she calls me superman flying high, looking low, watching closely trying to find where she goes I'm willing to be her superman I'm willing to be I'm willing and wanting her to call me superman
