"A coda"

ill-gotten feeling - a coda my lover's leaving and i love her i would've taken you in confidence on things you wouldn't hear of it, you never let me in under the circumstances i confess i never tried my best there's no plant tonight to water and i don't care if i live or die either wasted, lost emotions nostradamus - now i know what's meant for me i would have taken you in confidence on things you wouldn't hear of it, but you never let me in

under the circumstances

now i know what's meant for me

you wouldn't dream of it, you never let me in
under the circumstances
i confess i never tried my best...
