Jane, Jane, tall as a crane on a morning light
Creaks down again
Spoil the spool... pictures of you
Him in black, you in white
Are torn in two.

I hear little doggies wail...
What will brea? what will fail?
I hear little doggies wail...
What will break? what will fail?

Jane, it's the same old showdown again
You're well named, I don't mean you're plain, or calamity or
Bored out your brain
His kisses piss you off

And I hear little doggies wail...
I hear black board and nail
I hear little doggies wail...
What will break what will fail...

You in the leather
We could get together
Hey we're in the leather
We could get together
Hey we're in the leather
Maybe we could get together
Hey we're in the leather
Baby we could get together
Hey we're in the leather
We should get together...
