"Welcome back"

Welcome back, back to health
Back from the edge where we found you
Back in line, working fine
I hid my head in irrelevant books,
So tell me, is that where catastrophe looms?

Everyone's alive, everyone survived;
"Are we so alone?" echoes down the hall

Don't go back, back to hell
Back to the edge where we found you
I was blind when I dined
Out with the monsters I knew at the time
But now I know better; I'm better - I'm fine

Everyone survived, everyone's alive
"Are we so alone?" echoes round the hall

Everyone's alive, everyone's surprised
"Are we so alone?" echoes down the hall

Don't go back, don't go back
Back to the edge where we found you
