I've seen you before so tell me what's your name?
I listened for more, but all I heard was pain
Blood on the floor it always looks the same.

Now that you're here, well I just want you to know
You made your mistake and now I want you to go
I hope you can find someone to take you home.

PRE-CHORUS

Cause I have seen countless rough ends
And I never thought that ours would (be this way)

CHORUS

You've got to cry me out and live this once
Cause I'm done now, our time has run
There's nothing here worth staying for, we're better off
alone
You've got to cry me out and live this once

We've made our mistakes, but I won't place the blame
Neither of us wants it to feel this way
When this is done nothing will be the same

After it all, I hope you'll understand
The sky was the darkest that it's ever been
After the rain you'll see the light again

PRE-CHORUS

Cause I have seen countless rough ends
And I never thought that ours would (be this way)

CHORUS

You've got to cry me out and live this once
Cause I'm done now, our time has run
There's nothing here worth staying for, we're better off
alone
You've got to cry me out and live this once

When hope is lost, and no one's won Life goes on, so live this once

CHORUS

You've got to cry me out and live this once
Cause I'm done now, our time has run
There's nothing here worth staying for, we're better off
alone
You've got to cry me out and live this once

Your heart won't beat the same.
Your heart won't beat the same.

There's nothing here worth staying for, we're better off
alone
Our hearts won't beat the same
