Speak your mind. No one's listening.
Our hope's tied to everything you ...

PRE-CHORUS

Knew you felt but never said
Is burning through your eyes
I'll help you find yourself again tonight.

CHORUS

And you say we'll get out this time
And you wait, put your hand in mine
Believe it, we're the kids of yesterday

You say help me out this time
And you wait, put your hand in mine
Believe it, we're the kids of yesterday.

Speak your mind. Cause I'll be listening
On those long nights when everything you

PRE-CHORUS

Knew you felt but never said
Is burning through your eyes
I'll help you find yourself again tonight.

CHORUS

And you say we'll get out this time
And you wait, put your hand in mine
Believe it, we're the kids of yesterday

You say help me out this time
And you wait, put your hand in mine
Believe it, we're the kids of yesterday.

So lets just go. Do you feel alone?
You'll feel alone when the lights go out.
You'll feel at home when everything you

PRE-CHORUS

Knew you felt but never said
Is burning through your eyes

I'll help you find yourself again tonight.

CHORUS

And you say we'll get out this time
And you wait, put your hand in mine
Believe it, we're the kids of yesterday

You say help me out this time
And you wait, put your hand in mine
Believe it, we're the kids of yesterday.

You say help me out this time
And you wait, put your hand in mine
We're the kids. We're the kids (of yesterday)
Believe it. We're the kids.

Inside these walls. Hope is just waiting to fall.
