(Hello lover)
(Hello lover)

(Hello lover)
(Hello lover)

Have you noticed, that people are still having sex
All the denouncement had absolutely no effect
Parents and councilors constantly scorn them but people are still having sex and nothing seems to stop them

(Hello lover)
(Hello lover)

Do you realise, that people are still having sex they've been told not to, perhaps they are perplexed
When you see them holding hands they're making future plans
to engage in the activity, do you understand me?

People are still having sex, lust keeps on lurking
Nothing makes them stop, this AIDS thing's not working

People are still having sex, it's been going on for quite a while
Perhaps it's quite fashionable, it's hasn't got enough style (giggle)

It's a fact that people are still having sex
It's rather obvious, it's just what one expects
The evidence is all around that everyone in every town has had it one time or another in their life

At this very moment, people are still having sex
In a downtown condom, or street in the projects
Although you can't see them, or hear their breathing sounds
someone in this world is having sex right now

People are still having sex!
People are still having sex!
People are still having sex!
People are still having sex!

(Syn Organ solo)

(Sex, sex, sex, sex)
(Sex, sex, sex, sex)(giggle)

(Solo)

People are still having sex, lust keeps on lurking nothing makes them stop, this AIDS thing's not working People are still having sex, it's been going on for quite a while
Perhaps it's quite fashionable, it hasn't got enough style
People are still having sex,
People are still having sex,
People are still having sex,
People are still having sex (sex)
