I don't dress like a model in Vogue magazine
I'm more than content in my t-shirt and jeans
When I look at me I don't see an unforgettable face uh oh
But I'm the center of attention with all of my friends
I'm more popular than I've ever been
And every girl I know would love to take my place

Chorus:

I got that something that sends
The girls in a tisy
With envy burning in their eyes
It's that something they long for
That they can keep wishing
It's not my smile, my looks, or my style
That makes them act the way they do
That something is you
That something is you

You don't know what you do with that powerful charm
You say your just an old boy from the farm
But your heavin in blue jeans
A walking talking dream to me uh huh
So sweet and good looking just a little bit shy
I love the way you stay by my side
You tell me I got that something
And I agree

Chorus:

I got that something that sends
The girls in a tisy
With envy burning in their eyes
It's that something they long for
That they can keep wishing
It's not my smile, my looks, or my style
That makes them act the way they do
That something is you
That something is you

Bridge:

All my friends are jealous

But if I were in there shoes
I know that I would hate to see me
Going out with you...

Chorus:

I got that something that sends
The girls in a tisy
With envy burning in their eyes
It's that something they long for
That they can keep wishing
It's not my smile, my looks, or my style
That makes them act the way they do
That something is you
That something is you
