Nothing Like You

I smell you a mile away
Guys like you tear down LA never meaning what they say

Thought that we might coexist instead I'm getting the big kiss off , you are filled with cowardice

You can never ever look at me straight
Well it's okay, cause you were never that great

Nothing like you to mess up a good day
Nothing like you to mess up a good day
Nothing like you to mess up a good day
There is nothing like you

Oldest trick now in the book Can't believe the chance I took Hoping for some greater good

You can never ever look at me straight
Well it's okay, cause you were never that great

Nothing like you to mess up a good day
Nothing like you to mess up a good day
Nothing like you to mess up a good day
There is nothing like you

What I wanted, going up in smoke
What I wanted, thought you might be be more than my favorite joke

Nothing like you to mess up a good day
Nothing like you to mess up a good day
Nothing like you to mess up a good day
There is nothing like you
