World Away

Wise would I be to resign, I never was the simple kind Sure, I had some hope to raise Sad now to think of those days Tell me just what becomes of this house when I'm the only one here

Nothing at all where I thought it would be There's no smile in this place, there's no place left for me
I watch as it all keeps on falling away
Everything that once was me
Is a world away, I'm a world away

Had a penny watched it drown, made a wish I never found
Never wanted just to fade
Tragic it's worked out that way
I've lost my place in the sun
Feels as if I am the only one here

Nothing at all where I thought it would be
me
I watch as it all keeps on falling away
Everything that once was me
Is a world away, all a world away
