Then I realize I don't even know your name.

If we could share our time, would I disappoint your fantasies?

But I believe that I could be the one you're needed
'cause I'm...

[Reff:]

Only lonely on the inside

Didn't mean to take away your dreams.

Only lonely on the inside

When you close your eyes to your deepest thoughts

And I could start to give apologies for all the stupid things that I will say and I will do.

If we should ever cross the same place at the same time

would your world skip a beat 'cause it was me?

If we could share our life would I disappoint your memories?

I believe that you could be the one I'm needed. And I'm...

[Repeat Reff]

If I could give back your hopes, your joys, your treasures,

don't you think that I would change my world?

But there's so many things trying to pull us together.

And even though we're far apart, I can still watch you walk away.

Only lonely on the inside [2x.]

When you close your eyes what do you see?

Only lonely on the inside.

Didn't mean to take away your dreams.

Only lonely on the inside.

When you close your eyes, what do you see?

Only lonely on the inside.

When you close your eyes, in your deepest thoughts,
do you see me?

Only lonely on the inside. I didn't mean to steal your dream away.

Only lonely on the inside. I'm only lonely when you're gone...
